

Please don't weaken wisconsin's "Do-Not-Call" law. There should not be a problem with bankers not knowing laws in different states. Simply enter the states into the data base and eliminate those numbers from the base that are from do-not-call states. Done. What is so tough about that?